

JI pushes for united opposition front against inflation

Hafiz Neam reaches out to Maulana Fazl, Sohail Afridi

By our correspondent

ISLAMABAD: Jamaat-e-Islami (JI) emir Hafiz Neamur Rehman made telephonic contact with Jamiat Ulama-e-Islam-Fazl (JUIF) chief Maulana Fazlur Rehman and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Chief Minister Sohail Afridi on Thursday to discuss the country's overall political situation, rising inflation and growing public grievances over the petroleum levy.

During the discussions, the leaders evaluated the economic burden placed on the public and deliberated on joint political strategies to address these concerns.

The JI emir emphasised that the government's decision to impose an excessive petroleum levy amounts to direct injustice against the public, urging all opposition parties to unite and forcefully raise their voices against inflation and key public issues.

He said that the JI is actively fulfilling its responsibility by representing the genuine concerns of the people at a nationwide level.

Endorsing the JI stance, the JUIF chief announced his full support for their ongoing campaign against the petroleum levy, describing their clear-cut position on public welfare matters as a commendable effort.

Meanwhile, the KP CM also praised JI's democratic struggle for public rights and demanded that the federal government immediately provide concrete relief to citizens regarding the petroleum levy, the JI spokesman in a statement said.

Legal education reforms to meet global standards: Tarar

PBC launches annual report on Legal Education Directorate

By our correspondent

ISLAMABAD: Federal Minister for Law and Justice Azam Nazeer Tarar has said steps are being taken to bring Addressing participants at a ceremony at the Supreme Court building on Thursday to launch the annual report of the Pakistan Bar Council's Legal Education Directorate, he said numerous issues concerning law colleges had emerged over the past 15 years, but the Legal Education Committee had remained in capable hands.

Due to the problem of "ghost admissions" in the LLB programme, evening courses were abolished, while the Law-GAT examination was introduced in the country. He further said that, keeping international standards in view, the duration of the LLB programme had been reduced from five years to four years. He said that in 2022-23, an important decision was taken requiring all law colleges to share their students' data with the Pakistan Bar Council. Degree of students from colleges that failed to provide the required data would not be registered.

Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Pakistan Bar Council, Munir Malik, said that the Legal Education Directorate had been established pursuant to an order of the Supreme Court, under which the LLB programme was also reduced to four years. He said that the Pakistan Bar Council had held a meeting with officials of the Higher Education Commission regarding improving the quality of legal education, and further measures would continue to be taken in this regard.

TTAP leadership discusses political situation, Sept 27 PTI long march

Achakzai welcomes PM's response on appointment of new CEC, ECP members; MWM delegation meets TTAP chairman

By Mumtaz Ali

ISLAMABAD: The leadership of Tehreek Tahafuz Ayyeen-e-Pakistan (TTAP) on Thursday discussed the political scene and matters related to parliament and Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf's long march on Sept 27.

A delegation from the Maglis Wahdat-e-Muslimeen (MWM), led by its chief Allama Raja Nasir Abbas Jafri, who is the vice-chairman of TTAP and also Leader of the Opposition in the Senate, met Mahmood Khan Achakzai, the chairman of the opposition alliance and Leader of the Opposition in the National Assembly, at his residence.

A brief statement issued by the opposition alliance said during the meeting, a detailed exchange of views took place on matters of mutual interest, the country's political situation and regional affairs.

When contacted, TTAP

Spokesman Akhunda Hussain said that Achakzai welcomed the prime minister's response to his letter about the appointment of new chief election commissioner and two members of the Election Commission of Pakistan.

Achakzai had penned the letter to the premier on August 10 and it was immediately followed by a visit by members of the federal cabinet, including Raza Sanaullah and Dr Tariq Fazal Chaudhry.

Abbasi sees absence of constitutional supremacy

Urges lawyers to defend rule of law

By Mahboob Ali Yousafzai & Essa Khan Khel

MINGORA: Pakistan Awam Party (PAP) President and former prime minister Shahid Khaan Abbasi said on Thursday that Pakistan was passing through one of the worst periods in its history due to the absence of constitutional supremacy and the rule of law.

Addressing members of the District Bar Association Swat during his visit to Mulla, he said that failure to respect the people's mandate in elections was another serious challenge confronting the country.

He said no country could achieve sustainable development amid political instability and internal divisions.

Pakistan, he added, was gradually turning into a "security state" because of what he described as wrong and anti-people policies, which was a matter of serious concern for everyone.

He urged lawyers to play a practical role in restoring the country's constitutional and legal order.

"The legal fraternity has a significant responsibility to protect the Constitution, uphold the rule of law and strengthen democratic institutions," he added.

The PAP chief warned that people could eventually take to the streets to seek solutions to their grievances if the rulers failed to introduce legislation aimed at addressing the problems of the poor.

He said the people had become fed up with what he termed repeated false promises and claims by successive governments.

Abbasi criticised the pattern of legislation in Parliament, saying that lawmakers had largely focused on legislation aimed at protecting governments and the ruling elite rather than addressing the problems of the people. He questioned how rulers who were unable to honour their constitutional oaths could be expected to protect the rights and interests of ordinary citizens.

The PAP chief called upon lawyers to contribute actively towards ensuring constitutional supremacy and equal application of the law, saying that respect for constitutional limits by state institutions was essential for political stability and national development.

Zahid Hussain Khan Advocate, Irtash Ali Khan Advocate and other speakers also addressed the gathering. Behman Ali Khan Advocate, Sangene Khan Advocate and Rahatullah Khan Advocate presented traditional gifts to the visiting guests.

PAP central secretary-general Dr Zafar Mirza, Abdul Jabbar Khan, Sher Bahadur, Zada Khan, Salauddin Khan and other party leaders and guests also attended the event.
